Fund Manager: Andrew Jones since 2012

The Janus Henderson UK Responsible Income fund is a UK equity income strategy which aims to outperform the FTSE All Share index by investing across the whole market capitalisation spectrum. The fund adopts strict exclusionary criteria, preventing investing in areas such as oil and gas, mining, tobacco, alcohol and gambling among others. These exclusions have been in place since the fund's launch in 1995. Lead manager Andrew Jones joined Henderson (prior to the merger with Janus) in 2005 from Invesco, and has led the strategy since 2012. Along with co-manager David Smith, Andrew also has the support of the firm's wider income team. After screening out exclusions, the manager targets strong, cash generative businesses with a solid track record of earnings growth to support sustainable dividend payments going forward.
